Head of Operations, Reed

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to apply for the Head of Operations role in Sutton. I have 15 years of operational leadership experience across multiple teams, most recently as Head of Esports Operations at BLAST, and I am available to start quickly and adapt to a new environment.

At BLAST I led a six-person department with €12m+ in budgets and 2,000+ freelancers managed across 60+ flagship events a year. I rebuilt how the department worked, bringing in clearer ownership, accountability and documentation, and built the team's own tools to drive efficiency in bookings, budgets and deadlines. I worked closely with finance and commercial stakeholders to cost and pitch new work, and took on full ownership of staffing and equipment budgets as Tournament Operations Manager before that.

My background is in live events and broadcast rather than this advert's specific sector, but the operational leadership, people management, budget ownership and process improvement this role calls for are exactly what I've been doing for the last six years, and I'm used to picking up new operations quickly.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how this experience could apply to the Head of Operations role.

Yours faithfully,
Tim Everard
